

Xm radio is a wonderful service. It provides entertainment sans advertising just like paid cable programming such as HBO or Cinemax. It would be a shame if XM radio was shut down simply because lobbyists in Washington are lining the pockets of congressmen.